They are not by Congress: pleased with Buchanan, and must linnt up something to say; and the worst they find is, that ho was wrong thirty or forty years ago. That comes with an ill grace from them. How were they three or four years ago? Not what they are now, certainly. The Know-Nothings were groping in the dark, in the corruptions of the old parties-They had not found the new revelation. shey were running after the brogue and the accent, and otherwise deporting themselves in the shabbiest style. If they are right now, they were wrong then. They repudia e all antecedents, and plead the limitation act on all their past creed. They are nosing ont in the affairs of 1815 Why, one half of them were not born then. The fathers and mothers of a third of them had not left Ireland or Germany. They were the subjects of King George, or the Pope, or somebody else. Buchanan has been of the same party in politics during a period five times as long as the age of " Sam," and will be the same after " Sam" is dead and forgotten; and the said Sam's disciples will change their party and their creed soon after November next, if they can ret in them so long.

The facts are coming out in relation to the extent of Possnu Sumner's injuries, and place him in a very awkward position. For days and weeks he kept his bed, while the telegraph was busy in disseminating intelligence of his " precarious situntion." One day he was in a "very critical condition;" the next day we were told that he was a "little easier;" another dispatch informed us that "it was hoped the crysipelas was arrested," &c., &c. Well, truth must out at last. His attending physi lan testifies before the Congressional Committee that there was nothing in his wounds to confine him to the house one moment; that his medical attendant so told him, but that Sumner's friends advised him to stay in.

If the whole truth could be elicited, we have no | sho doubt that not only has he been playing cossum since the fight, but that he commenced the game with the first blow that was struck. That his insensibility was assumed, in order to escape the further chastisement he had not the manly conrage to resist. We suggest to the Black Republicans that they adopt the possum as their emblem

The editor of the Journal is very much trenbled in mind, because Buchanan delivered a Fourth of July cration some forty-one years ago, in which he declared himself opposed to the Democratio party of that day, and publishes part of the oration, and promises the balance in his next issue. KNOW-NOTHING INTOLERANCE AND INDECEN-CY.—The large and orderly assemblage of Democrats on Thursday night, meeting in pursuance of one of the plainest and most indisputable rights as republican freemen, was much disturbed by the unmannerly interruptions of the Know-Nothings on the outskirts of the crowd. Every means that they could invent to annov and insult means that they could invent to annoy and insult the speakers, and prevent them being heard by the people, short of actual violence, was adopted. Shonting, hallocing, and throwing of throutine halls around and among the crowd was resorted to. It was most gratifying to see the calmness and contempt with which these infamous proceedings were treated by the large number of Democrats present.—Nashville Union, 16th. It would seem that the game played by the Know-Nothings at Lonisville last year, has been successfully played out at New Orleans, in the recont elections in that city. Some four of five thou-sand votes have been frightoned from the polls by the Know-Nothingssystem of bullying. The True Delta of the 5th says: "The total vote of the city on last Monday was only 7,438, out of a voting population of betwee: thirteen and fourteen thousand. In other words, about six thousand electors did not vote on that int resting and memorable occasion!"- Memphis Appeal. MB. FILLMORE AND HIS PARTISANS.

That some of the over realous partisans of Mr. Fillmore were so disorderly at the anti-Fillmore Convention yesterday, that the police had to be called in to reduce them to good behavior. They were rightly served; and if these disturbances are what the Fillmore organ would call "Americans ruling America," the sconer these rowdy partisans are taught a different lesson the better.

Oppenheimer plaintiff, vs. Carter & Thomas, de fendants.
Plaintiff alleged that defendants contracted earry him from Bowling Green to Louisville by stage; that they acted in so careless a manner that they caused the horses to ran away with the stage and threw him out, breaking his log and other wise greatly injuring him, to his damage of $10, Dofendants answered denying the carelessness and charging that the contract was to carry plain tiff on the outside of the stage; that he had go inside in violation of his contract, and, in doiso, had cansed the horses to run away, that : driver objected to plaintiff getting inside; that he had no right to do so as the seats were engaged; that the stage was not ready to start, and, by plaintiff's own sot the injury was produced and therefore plaintiff had no right to complain.

Proof conduced to show that the stage was the door nearly ready to start, the horses already hitched up; that the driver told plaintiff not to get in the coach; that the horses ran away and broke plaintiff's leg; that no one was holding or gnarding the horses at the time they started and ran away. There was also some proof showing that plaintis had agreed to ride on the on'side of the coach and had got inside against the driver's wish, and was inside when the stage ran away.

There was also some conflict of testimeny and some proof showing that hut few accidents had ever conred on the line. The plaintiff moved for the following instruc one, which were given by the Court.

If the jury believe from the ovidence, that whilst the plaintiff was a passenger on defendants stage, to be carried from towling Green to Louis ille, the stage, with horses hitched to it was u the door of the hotel where the passengors were expecting to go in that coach and the horses were not guarded so as to prevent them from starting, the defendants are liable for any injury cansed by their starting to any passengers who got in the coach when he was warned that the horses were not guarded and that there was dengar from that not guarded, and that there was danger from that cause, or he was distinctly warned or told by the driver not to get in the stage, that they must fise for plaintiff an amoust in damages which will, in their opinion, be sufficient to compensate plaintiff for his loss of time, the expenses he incurred, and the pain and suffering he endured in consequence of the injury he received on the occasion mention ed in the pleadings. In the state of case presented in the above in-structions, the facts (if true) that the coach would accommodate but nine passengers, and that plaintiff was entered after the nine, is not a sufficient exense for defendants' omission to have the Lorses guarded or the plaintiff warned of the danger. That although the Jury may believe the injury was caused by the plaintiff's own act in jumping

The defendants then asked for the following intruction which was given.

That, notwithstanding they may believe that the coach was hitched up, and the plaintiff got in the same, yet, if he was notified distinctly hy defendants, or their agent, not to get in the stage, that it was not ready to start, and plaintiff did get in and was injured by reacon thereof that the

in, and was injured by reason thereof, that they ought to find for defendants.

The Jury gave plaintiff $700 in damages. Wolf, Bodly, and Pindle for plaintiff; Gorin, Harret, and Wood for defendants.

[From the Panama Star, June 31.] Central America.

WALKER'S POSITION. There appears no doubt of Walker's retreat from Rivas, after a heavy loss, both on his part and that of the Costa Ricans. The latest intelligence inconsisted altegether of 1,000 foreigners, and about 500 natives, and that owing to the deprivations they were undergoing, there was a great deal of disactisfaction among his troops. This is the sum total of what we have been able to gather by the British steamer recently arrived from Greytown, RIS PROSPECTS.

By a recent arrival from La Union, we lear that the Central American States had at length formed a ccalition to oppose Gen. Walker, and that 3,000 troops from Guatemala, 2,000 from Sal-vador, and 1,000 from Honduras, were actually in march for Nicaragna.

march for Nicaragna.

These forces are to join Costa Rica, in which ovent we see little chance for Walkor's party.

There is, however, one opening for him, of which he will prohably avail himself. He is already aware that the British man-of war Precident had a stilled for the property of the property Propert sailed from Puenta Aronas, leaving that port unprotected, and he may therefore seize the Sierra Nevada, and transport his troops to that point, where he could doubtless eff ot an casy landing where he could donnties en c an casy sauding.
Once on shore, he has a grand field for pillage hefore him, and he could, in all probability, reach unopposed, the plains of San Jose, where, with lots of supplies athis command, he could maintain himself for a length of time.

[From the Aspinwali Courier, Jnne 3d.] We learn that on the morning the Daviel Webster arrived at Greytown, the schooner Minnie Shiffer also arrived at New Orleans, May 8th, with 220 men, a quantily of municiones de werr boca, ammunition and provisions, for Walk:r that he had possession of the entire country; and that no forces from the adjoining states were coming npon him, as has been reported. The steamer Hermes, tender of H. B. M.'s frigate Imanin, arrived at this port on Sunday ing, the 1st inst., from San Juan del Norto.

FILLIBUSTERS FOR PANAMA. There seems to be an impression among the anamenes that we are about having a large force of fillibusters quartered among ns. We also hear it reported that some of the natives are removing to different parts of the interior. We can see no ground for any such alarm, and can only account for their leaving, upon the principle that "the wicked flee when no man pursual."

The United States will not allow fillibusters to land as long as they have a man-of war lying here, and we are under the impression that the treaty botween the United States and New Granada guarantoes this government protection against any such invasion.

In common with other citizens of Louisville, we are truly gratified at the success of the Nations' Hotel. It is an ornament, as well as a positive advantage, to the city, and now we can scarcely realize how we did without it so long. From the day it was first thrown open for the reception of visitors down to the present time, it has been constantly crowded with guests from all sections of the country, notwithstanding the season has been a bad one for the hotel business generally. Years were not required to build up the reputation of the "National." Its proprieters were known throughout the South and West, and the bare ann-uncement of their names was a sufficient guaranty of the excellency of the entertainment they might effer the public. They commenced with a business which other hotels have required years to attain, and every succeeding day has only added to the popularity of the house, until now the National is everywhere known as one of the very best hotels in the Union. It is needless to speak of the fare or the general conduct of the house. Its guests whether residing in the city or temporarily sojourning here, are the best judges; and their verdict, rendered, as far as we know or believe. without a dissenting voice, is to the superiority of the National over most of the first class botels in the Union.

The firm of Abat & Railley has been dissolved, Mr. Abat retiring to his plantation in Missouri, and Mr. Railley assuming the entire business of the house. These gentlemen have many warm friends in Kentucky, and to Mr. Abat, who leaves us for a permanent home in Missonri, wr tender our kindest wishes for his health and happlness, while to Mr. Railley we recommend all the patrons of the old firm, and as many new customers as are in want of a very superior article of most approved brands and vintago. The oid stand is stil the "bendgnarters" of Mr. Railley.

THE HICENAN WHEAT .- A sample of very superior wheat, called the Hickman wheat, has been laid upon our table. It is from the farm of William L. l'rather, whose farm is some three miles from the city. We are told that he has the finest growing wheat crop in Jefferson county, this season. Judging from the sample before us, the Hickman wheat is 'not only a fine species-large, full grained-but one that grows upon a strong stem, and heads ont full and well. Any farmer wishing to examine the sample, can see it at our

By last night's mail we are in the receipt of the first number of the Lawrence Democrat pub hished at Bedford , Indiana, by Mesers. N. F. Malotte, and Walter R. Johns. The paper presents a nest appearance, and is edited with considerable ability. It may be well enough to ask, at the conclusion of this article, who is reeponsible for this mutiny and this confugration, involving, as it does, the loss of from fifteen to twenty theusand dellars. We say fearleastly, and in this we are enetained by will with whom we have conversed on the subject, that Wm. M. French, the editor of the Jefferson-ville Republican, is the guilty man. He may, and probably did, have abottors, but he is as much responsible for what has occurred at the prison during the last three days as though he himself had applied the incendiary torch. As we have remarked before, he published a long article in which he attempted to show that there was no law by which the prisoners could be retained after the expiration of Mr. Patterson's lease, and that every one of them would be entitled to his liberty on the 15th of June.
